

Purchase Receipts & Ownership Evidence

Evidence bundle EVID-CLM10001-01

Evidence register

The following facsimiles are synthetic evidence records provided by the insured. They support testing of ownership, purchase-price extraction and the distinction between historical cost and replacement value.

Receipt 1 - Television

Retailer	MetroVision Electronics Pty Ltd (fictional)
Receipt	MV-231112-8841
Purchase date	12 November 2023
Purchaser	Daniel Morgan
Delivery address	42 Example Crescent, Glenhaven VIC 3999
Item	LuminaView LX65Q90 65-inch 4K television (fictional model)
Unit price	AUD 4,899.00
Extended warranty	AUD 249.00
Total paid	AUD 5,148.00
Payment	Visa ending 1042 (synthetic)

Claim relevance

The claim form seeks AUD 7,500 as the television replacement value. This receipt shows the original television price was AUD 4,899, excluding the optional warranty. A current equivalent quote would be needed to establish replacement cost.

Receipt 2 - Media console

Delivery	AUD 95.00
Total	AUD 1,190.00

Receipt 3 - Wool rug

Retailer	Southern Loom Interiors (fictional)
Receipt	SLI-250914-72
Purchase date	14 September 2025
Item	Hand-tufted wool rug, 240 x 330 cm
Amount paid	AUD 920.00

Evidence limitations

These documents do not prove the cause of damage, current condition, current market replacement cost or repair viability. Serial numbers were not shown on the source receipt facsimiles. Photographs in the incident report should be linked separately during assessment.
